

Title: I am the monster in my head

I am the monster in my head

(Into instrumental)

(Verse)

I might be a little bit unstable,

But I still got to be me.

What's inside just won't be stopped,

It's wild, it's loud, it's free.

(Chorus)

The thoughts come, they dance and play,

The rhythm never fades away.

The music pops, it's how I breathe —

Just another day,

Just me being me.

The quiet hums inside my head

Echoes of words I never said

A trembling thought, a flickering of light

The heartbeat drums and the music starts

Come dance with me
Hear the music?-it's in my head
Lets keep it dark, like no one's here
Like dancing with madness or mischief rather than pure despair

Just me being me

Perfect – here's a verse that continues that theme of embracing imperfection and staying true to yourself,

(Verse 2)

Come dance with me to the songs in my head
Listen to the voices sing out of key
They hum the dreams I never said
So Share the music in my head

Just me being me

Some days I'm flying, some days I fall,
But I keep on standing tall.
The world can judge, the world can see,
I'm the monster in my head
But I'm still proud of being me.

(Chorus)

The quiet hums inside my head
Echoes of words I never said
A trembling thought, a flickering light
The heartbeat drums and the music starts
The thoughts come, they dance and play,
The rhythm never fades away.
The music pops, it's how I breathe —
Come dance with me-
me just being me
I'm the monster in my head
Just me being me

Nice-- Lets keep the music going

(Verse3)

Spin with the ghosts in the candlelight
Laugh as the stars forget the night
Whisper secrets to the breeze
Lets lose our minds with ease

Just another day,
Playing with the monsters in my head
Just me being me.

(Verse4)

I've tried to change, I've tried to hide,
But it tears me up inside.
Now I'm done with chasing "should,"
I'm living loud, misunderstood.

Come dance with me where the shadows grin
Its just madness- - just let it in
Come dance with me to the songs in my head
Its just insanity
Let the dance begin

(Bridge)

Spin faster, the candles lean
Whisper secrets, nowhere seen
The shadows stretch,
They grin,
They bend
Come let the madness never end
One twirl to make the shadows sway
The music lingers it won't fade away
Every heartbeat, every thread
Come dance with me
I'm the monster in my head
Just me being me

(Final Chorus)

The quiet hums inside my head
Echoes of words I never said
The heartbeat drums and the music starts
The thoughts come, they dance and play,
The rhythm never fades away.
The music pops, it's how I breathe —
Just another day,
Playing with the monsters in my head
Just me being me.

(Outro)

Unstable maybe, but finally free,
Come dance with me
Just me being me-

Just me being me .
