

Title: Storm within

(Intro) (Instrumental drums)

Drum test

Beat 1 – (introduce the first beat)

Beat 2 – (introduce the second drum line)

Beat 3 – (bass drop)

Let it ride— (music starts)

Let the bass hit,

Like thunder from the gods of despair.

(Verse 1)

Sanity on the edge of my mind,

Heartbeat racing in time.
Echoes rise, shadows fall,
Feel the rhythm break down the walls.

(Pre-Chorus)

Every pulse is pulling you through,
Let the beat move through you.

(Chorus)

We're alive in the sound tonight,
Close your eyes—you'll see the truth.
Every note is a spark in you.

(Verse 2)

Bass drops deep, shaking the ground,
Every soul electrified now.
Fear and doubt fade away,
All that's left is the rhythm of the drums.

(Pre-Chorus)

Every pulse is pulling you through,
Let the beat move through you.

(Chorus)

We're alive in the sound tonight,
Close your eyes—you'll see the truth.
Every note is a spark in you.

(Bridge)

Like thunder from despair's own throne,
We take chaos and make it our own.
Every crash, every tone,
Is the sound of taking control.

(Final Chorus)

Let the beat move through you,

Let the music move you.
From the edge to the light,
We are alive—tonight.
