

What are these thoughts drifting through my head

Where will they lead

Do I have the ambition to achieve

Chasing dreams

Chasing thoughts

Does any of this have meaning outside of me

Am I Chasing immortality

Is this a fear of leave nothing behind

Of sights

Of sounds

The smells

The taste

What was the feel

Do I remember the emotions

What of this experience remains

Does it have a name

Who am I to chase meaning

Who am I and what do I seek

Do I have the ambition to achieve

To leave something of this experience

For others to receive

What am Chasing

In the end we can't take anything with us.
All that is left is the experiences shared.

Would you rather be remembered for how
much you were worth,
or how much you shared?

What are these thoughts drifting through my head

Where will they lead

Is this a fear of leaving nothing behind

What am I chasing

Chasing dreams

Chasing thoughts

Do I have the ambition to achieve

Does any of this have meaning outside of me

Who am I to chase meaning

Who am I

And what do I seek

Do I have the ambition to achieve
To leave something of this experience
For others to receive
In the end we can't take anything with us
Is all that is left the experiences shared
Would you rather be remembered for how
much you were worth
Did you take more than you needed
Or did you give more than you had
Of sights
Of sounds
The smells
The taste
What was the feel
What of this experience remains
Does it have a name
If this is all that remains
What am I chasing
What does ambition seek

Did you take more than you needed,
or did you give more than you had?
